

Symposium⁰⁰⁰² on Haemophilia

9.00 a.m.	Registration	12.45 p.m.	LUNCH
	Chairman: Professor A. S. Douglas		Chairman: Dr. Rosemary Biggs
9.15 a.m.	Haemophilia - an historical overview Dr. Rosemary Biggs Director, Oxford Haemophilia Centre.	2.00 p.m.	Management of haemophilic families Dr. Peter Jones Director, Newcastle Haemophilia Centre, Royal Victoria Hospital.
9.25 a.m.	Treatment of haemophilia with F VIII concentrates Dr. Charles Rizza Consultant Physician, Churchill Hospital, Oxford.	2.20 p.m.	Social problems of haemophilia Mrs. V. Stopford Social Worker, The Haemophilia Society.
9.45 a.m.	Current thoughts on the treatment of F VIII inhibitors Dr. Katharine M. Dormandy Director of the Haemophilia Centre, The Royal Free Hospital, London.	2.40 p.m.	Psycho-social problems in haemophilia Dr. I. Markova Dept. of Psychology, University of Stirling.
10.15 a.m.	Indications and requirements for home treatment Professor G.I.C. Ingram Dept. of Haematology, St. Thomas' Hospital, London.	3.00 p.m.	Financial implications of the haemophilic state Miss F. Carter Health Service Operational Research Unit, University of Strathclyde.
10.45 a.m.	Discussion	3.20 p.m.	Panel discussion
11.00 a.m.	Coffee	3.40 p.m.	Tea
11.30 a.m.	The place of fibrinolytic inhibitors in haemophilia Professor G. P. McNicol Dept. of Medicine, The General Infirmary, Leeds.	4.00 p.m.	Virus hepatitis complicating replacement therapy Dr. J. Craske Public Health and Hospital Microbiology Laboratory, Poole General Hospital, Dorset.
11.45 a.m.	Discussion	4.20 p.m.	Some clinical problems arising in the use of F IX concentrates Dr. J. D. Cash Director, Regional Blood Transfusion Centre, Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh.
11.50 a.m.	Clinical and biochemical abnormalities in von Willebrand's Disease Dr. Dominique Mcyer Institute de Pathologie, Cellulaire Hospital de Bicetre, Paris.	4.40 p.m.	Coagulation changes following F IX concentrate Dr. F. E. Preston Dept. of Haematology, The Royal Infirmary, Sheffield.
12.10 p.m.	Discussion	5.00 p.m.	Discussion
12.15 p.m.	Orthopaedic management in haemophilia Mr. G. Bentley Clinical Reader in Orthopaedics, Nuffield Orthopaedic Centre, Headington, Oxford.	5.15 p.m.	Close of Symposium
12.40 p.m.	Discussion

Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow

242 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow.
Friday 19 September 1975.

